Board Policy 2.1 Campus Student Associations

Part 1. Recognition
Students at each college and university must have the right to establish a student government herein referred to as a campus student association. Students establishing a campus student association shall develop a constitution for the association. Only currently enrolled students are eligible to serve as student representatives or officers. The college or university shall recognize the campus student association as the official representative of the students, upon receipt of evidence that the student body has approved the constitution. Colleges and universities that have multiple campuses shall develop policies and procedures to assure representation and participation in a campus student association by students at their constituent campuses.

Part 2. Duties
In addition to the duties listed in college, university, and board policies and in the campus student association constitution, the campus student association shall have the sole authority to recommend the chartering of student clubs and organizations for approval by the college or university president.

Part 3. Appeal
Internal auditing activities must be conducted in compliance with board policies and system procedures. In addition, internal auditing shall comply with relevant professional standards and the Institute of Internal Auditors’ mandatory guidance including the Definition of Internal Auditing, the Code of Ethics, and the International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing (Standards).

Part 4. Services
The appeal of decisions made by the campus student association relative to chartering, funding, or providing service to student organizations when such decisions may be in violation of law, policy, or procedure must be conducted in accordance with the existing college or university grievance policy.
