The predesign shall include the current and proposed space utilization (data from EMS Campus), deferred maintenance and backlog, FCI (Facility Condition Index), academic program information, and options to be analyzed for this program scope. The final product should clearly describe the adequacy of the current space in support of the academic mission of the campus. It should also recommend changes in space usage that can better enhance and align academic and support areas across the campus in light of the changing academic or student services vision.

Preference should be given to solutions that address Minnesota State’s priorities for facilities:
- Maintaining, improving, and modernizing campus spaces supporting critical academic needs of the campus region and state of Minnesota
- Preserving and maintaining the space we have and minimizing new square footage; additional square footage should be considered only in unique situations where options for reutilization or replacement of existing space have been exhausted
- Building for the future with flexible and adaptable space.
Integral to the predesign is describing options or alternatives in program delivery, including associated schedule and budget implications. The predesign must also consider Sustainable Building 2030 goals, energy benchmarking, and Presidents’ Climate Commitment; energy efficiency plans and sustainability options for the project should be analyzed and described.

Rochester Community and Technical College will provide floor plans, site plans, space utilization (EMS) data, comprehensive facilities plan, academic and technology plans, FCI, condition assessments, hazardous waste management plans, and other information that the consultant may need.

The consulting team shall meet with the Predesign Taskforce and representatives of academic and administrative areas, faculty and students, and community constituents to assess current utilization, future space needs, facilities condition issues, program options, and other future needs. The consultant shall weigh this input along with marketing, financial, and institutional data. Note that cost and schedule have an integral connection to the development of the scope of work to be performed; the consultant should be prepared to discuss how different options affect the budget and schedule (e.g., a classroom that must be built in six months may cost substantially more than if it has a more reasonable construction timeframe).

During the predesign process, the consultant shall consider, but not be limited to, the following options for the campus:

- Addressing academic and workforce needs through space realignment, reconfiguration, and demolition
- Renovation, including rightsizing obsolete/underutilized classroom and lab space, or program repurposing and redevelopment.
- Reassessing program delivery as it relates to how the learning components fit the physical plant
- Reuse of existing space through scheduling options
- Consolidation and possible relocation of programs to better serve students
- Incremental plans to modernize for enhanced program efficiency and effectiveness
- Collaborative programs and partnerships at the campus
- Creation of alternatives and options that provide budget flexibility
- Recommending alternative uses of the space after relocation of programs (if applicable).

Predesign Process:

The consultant shall be prepared to undertake the tasks below as part of the predesign process. This list is not inclusive of all necessary tasks.
For some projects, additional analysis is required to confirm the overall scope where infrastructure, existing conditions, or phasing of options present additional challenges. This analysis will be part of the predesign project.

Ensure that the project proposed aligns with the campus’ current comprehensive facilities plan.

Compile and analyze data from previous studies and plans to ensure a consistent plan for Rochester Community and Technical College (e.g. space utilization, deferred maintenance analysis, facilities condition index (FCI), academic plan, security plan, energy management improvement, technology plan, and transportation/parking studies). Note how the consultant will perform this work in conjunction with the campus. Assessment of existing facilities condition and building systems must include in-person site surveys by the appropriate consultant(s).

Work with the campus’s Predesign Taskforce and other campus personnel to develop a predesign that addresses academic and facilities needs while aligning with the principles established in the core commitments of the Minnesota State Strategic Framework adopted by the Board of Trustees. The work outlined in the predesign must comply with all applicable local, state and federal codes and Minnesota State policies and standards.

Provide 50% and 95% document drafts to the College and to Capital Development at the system office for review and comments. The results of this review should be incorporated before submitting the final document. Modifications may also be required after final submittal. Capital Development staff are available for interim review with the campus or consultant.

Present the predesign document and recommendations to Rochester Community and Technical College’s president and administration. Provide to Rochester Community and Technical College five (5) bound copies of the final predesign document plus one unbound copy ready for reproduction.

When the final (100%) predesign document is ready, the system office will need 1 hard copy (3 ring binder, sections separated by tabs, binder labeled front and spine) and 1 electronic copy (in PDF format). The PDF may be submitted on either a thumb drive or via a file-sharing service.

The final predesign must be presented by campus personnel (and the consultant, if desired) to the system office (Capital Development) via teleconference.
Proposed Fee Range:
A major goal of predesign is to obtain accurate assessments of existing conditions in the project area (including, but not limited to, mechanical and electrical systems, furniture, fixtures & equipment, instructional technology, hazardous materials, structural systems, environmental concerns, and site conditions) and accurate estimates of project costs. It is expected that consultant teams will include all sub-consultants necessary to achieve this goal. The consulting team should ensure that their proposed fee includes sub-consultant costs. The college anticipates the cost of the project to be $12-$16 million with an anticipated predesign fee range of: $85 - 105K.

Candidate Minimum Qualifications:
The consulting team shall have a minimum of 5 years prior experience with college design and/or campus planning on a similar campus type environment; municipal, corporate, or other relevant campus planning experience may be considered. The prior experience must demonstrate the ability to determine facilities utilization, evaluate conditions, understand deferred maintenance condition assessments, incorporate sustainability components, suggest project and potential total project costs, evaluate multiple campuses, assess academic program needs, and project future space needs based on that data.

The responder agrees that, if after disclosure in writing must be made to the respective school’s chief financial officer or the System Office’s Business Manager that must include a description of the action which the vendor has taken or proposes to take to avoid or mitigate such conflicts. If an organizational conflict of interest is determined to exist, the school or System Office may, at its discretion, cancel the contract. In the event the responder was aware of an organizational conflict of interest prior to the award of the contract and did not disclose the conflict to the contracting officer, the school or System Office may terminate the contract for default. The provisions of this clause must be included in all subcontracts for work to be performed similar to the service provided by the prime contractor, and the terms “contract,” “contractor,” and “contracting officer” modified appropriately to data as defined in the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act, Minnesota Statutes Chapter 13; and other applicable laws.

In performance of the contract, the vendor agrees it will comply with all applicable state, federal and local laws and regulations, including but not limited to the laws under Minnesota Statute Chapters 13 relating to confidentiality of information received as a result of the contract. The vendor agrees that it, its officers, employees and agents will be bound by the above confidentiality laws and that it will establish procedures for public any information received by the vendor on behalf of Minnesota State and Rochester Community and Technical College.

The vendor shall recognize Minnesota State’s sole and exclusive right to control the use of this information. The vendor further agrees it shall make no use of any of the described information, for either internal or external purposes, other than that which is directly related to the performance of the contract.
